

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

PREAMBLE.

WE, the people of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, grateful to Almighty God for the civil and religious liberty which He hath so long permitted us to enjoy, and looking to Him for a blessing upon our endeavors to secure and to transmit the same unimpaired to succeeding generations, do ordain and establish this constitution of government. Preamble.

ARTICLE I.

Declaration of Certain Constitutional Rights and Principles.

In order effectually to secure the religious and political freedom established by our venerated ancestors, and to pre- Declaration.

Right of the people to make and alter their constitution.

serve the same for our posterity, we do declare that the essential and unquestionable rights and principles hereinafter mentioned shall be established, maintained and preserved, and shall be of paramount obligation in all legislative, judicial and executive proceedings.

Objects of free governments. How laws should be made.

SECTION 2. All free governments are instituted for the protection, safety and happiness of the people. All laws, therefore, should be made for the good of the whole; and the burdens of the state ought to be fairly distributed among its citizens.

Religious freedom secured.

SEC. 3. Whereas Almighty God hath created the mind free; and all attempts to influence it by temporal punishments or burdens, or by civil incapacitations, tend to beget habits of hypocrisy and meanness; and whereas a principal object of our venerable ancestors, in their migration to this country and their settlement of this state, was, as they expressed it, to hold forth a lively experiment, that a flourishing civil state may stand and be best maintained with full liberty in religious concerns: we, therefore, declare that no man shall be compelled to frequent or to support any religious worship, place, or ministry whatever, except in fulfillment of his own voluntary contract; nor enforced, restrained, molested, or burdened in his body or goods; nor disqualified from holding any office; nor otherwise suffer on account of his religious belief; and that every man shall be free to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and to profess and by argument to maintain his opinion in matters of religion; and that the same shall in no wise diminish, enlarge, or affect his civil capacity.

ARTICLE IX.

Of Qualifications for Office.

SECTION 1. No person shall be eligible to any civil office, (except the office of school committee), unless he be a qualified elector for such office.

Qualified electors only eligible.

ARTICLE XII.

Of Education.

SECTION 1. The diffusion of knowledge, as well as of virtue, among the people, being essential to the preservation of their rights and liberties, it shall be the duty of the general assembly to promote public schools, and to adopt all means which they may deem necessary and proper to secure to the people the advantages and opportunities of education.

Duty of the general assembly to promote public schools and education.

SEC. 2. The money which now is or which may hereafter be appropriated by law for the establishment of a permanent fund for the support of public schools, shall be securely invested, and remain a perpetual fund for that purpose.

The permanent public school fund.

SEC. 3. All donations for the support of public schools, or for other purposes of education, which may be received by the general assembly, shall be applied according to the terms prescribed by the donors.

Donations for support of public schools.

SEC. 4. The general assembly shall make all necessary provisions by law for carrying this article into effect. They shall not divert said money or fund from the aforesaid uses, nor borrow, appropriate, or use the same, or any part thereof, for any other purpose, under any pretence whatsoever.

Power of the general assembly under this article.

CHAPTER 6.

Of the Rights and Qualifications of Voters.

SECTION

1. Classification of voters as registered and unregistered, and their rights to vote.

Classification of voters as registered and unregistered.

SECTION

2. Right to vote on real estate, situated in town other than that in which voter resides.

SECTION 1. The two following classes of persons have, by the constitution, the first as registered and the second as unregistered voters, a right to vote in the election of all civil officers, and on all questions in all legally organized town, ward or district meetings :—

Registered voters, including personal property voters.

First, Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who has had his residence and home in this state for two years, and in the town or city, in which he may offer to vote, six months next preceding the time of his voting, and whose name shall be registered, in the town or city where he resides, on or before the last day of December in the year next preceding the time of his voting: Provided, that no person shall at any time be allowed to vote in the election of the city council of any city, or upon any proposition to impose a tax or for the expenditure of money in any town or city, unless he shall within the year next preceding have paid a tax assessed upon his property therein, valued at least at one hundred and thirty-four dollars.

Second, Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who has had his residence and home in this state for one year, and in the town or city, in which he may claim a right to vote, six months next preceding the time of voting, and who is really and truly possessed in his own right of real estate in such town or city of the value of one hundred and thirty-four dollars over and above all incumbrances, or which shall rent for seven dollars per annum over and above any rent reserved or the interest of any incumbrances thereon, being an estate in fee-simple, fee-tail, for the life of any person, or an estate in reversion or remainder, which qualifies no other person to vote, the conveyance of which estate, if by deed, shall have been recorded at least ninety days.

Unregistered,
or real estate
voters.

SEC. 2. The following class of persons have, by the constitution, as unregistered voters, a right to vote in the election of all general officers and members of the general assembly, in the town or city in which they shall have had their residence and home for the term of six months next preceding the election:—

Persons entitled to vote in a town for general officers, etc., upon real estate in another town.

Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who has had his residence and home in this state for one year, and shall own any such real estate within this state, but out of the town or city in which he resides, as is described in the second clause of the first section of this chapter, and who shall produce a certificate from the clerk of the town or city in which his estate lies, bearing date within ten days of the time of his voting, setting forth that such person has a sufficient estate therein to qualify him as a voter, and that the deed, if any, has been recorded ninety days.

CHAPTER 7.

Of the Registering, Listing and Returning Lists of Voters, and of Proof of their Qualification to Vote.

SECTION

2. Registry voters to register themselves annually.
3. Names of property taxpayers to be put on voting list; and annual registry not required.
8. Proof of payment of taxes.
12. Town clerks, etc., to furnish certified copies of lists of voters on demand, etc.

SECTION

13. Town clerks to give certified copies of registration of voters and other records.
14. Electors entitled to certified lists of persons paying taxes, etc., and penalty for refusal to furnish same.

Registry voters are to register themselves annually.

Penalty for false certificate.

Persons of a foreign birth to file proof of citizenship.

SECTION 2. Every person who is or within a year may be qualified to vote, upon being registered, shall go to the town clerk of the town in which he resides, and shall annually, on or before the last day of December, register his name, and thereby certify to the truth of the facts stated in the appropriate heads of such registry. Every person who shall knowingly make any false certificate in registering his name in any such registry book shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding sixty days: Provided, that before any person's name shall be placed upon the voting list, if such citizen shall be of foreign birth, he shall file proof, at least five days before any meeting of the board of canvassers, with the town clerk, that he is a citizen of the United States, and such proof shall be subject to the approval of the board of canvassers of the town or ward wherein such person shall claim the right to vote.

SEC. 3. The several town and ward clerks shall annually place upon the voting list the names of the several persons who have previously been upon the voting list, according to the provisions of this chapter, against whom a property tax to the amount of one dollar or upwards shall have been assessed; and such persons need not register their names annually as is required of persons not paying a property tax.

Names of property tax-payers to be put on voting lists; and annual registry not required.

SEC. 8. The proof of the payment of taxes upon real estate or personal property shall be the certificate of the collector of taxes or town treasurer; and the receipt or returns of the collector of taxes shall be sufficient evidence for the purpose of procuring the certificate of the town treasurer. In case of a school-district or highway tax, when by law the same may be paid, whether in money or labor, to a surveyor of highways or to a district collector, the receipt of such surveyor or district collector shall be sufficient evidence of such payment for the purpose of procuring the certificate of the collector of taxes or of the town treasurer.

Proof of the payment of taxes.

SEC. 12. Every town, ward or district clerk, upon payment or tender of his legal fees, which shall be the same for the ward and district clerks as for the town clerks, shall furnish to any one demanding the same a certified copy of any list of voters whose votes have been given in at any election.

Town clerks, etc., to furnish certified lists of voters, on demand and tender of fee.

SEC. 13. Every town clerk shall, upon like payment or tender, furnish to any person demanding the same a certified copy of any registration of voters, and shall also, upon request of any person and tender of legal fees, and without any unreasonable delay, examine the records and certify to the estate of any person, and shall furnish copies of any instrument or writing which may be on record or in the files of his office.

Also a certified copy of registration of voters and other records.

SEC. 14. Every officer authorized to receive taxes shall, upon like request and payment or tender, and without un-

SEC. 20. The collector shall also in all cases advertise the same for three successive weeks in a newspaper, if there be one published in the town, if not, in the county, and shall also post up notices in three public places in said town, at least twenty days previous to the appointed time of sale.

Of sale, tax
not being paid.

SEC. 21. If such owner do not pay the amount of the tax, with the interest or percentage and all costs and charges, by the time appointed for the sale, the collector shall sell the same, or enough to pay said sums, at public auction.

Surplus to be returned to owner.

SEC. 22. Any property or surplus of money remaining shall be returned to the owner or person entitled to receive it. If no owner or person entitled to receive the same can be found by the collector, he shall deliver such property or surplus of money to the town treasurer, who shall hold the same subject to the call of the owner thereof.

SEC. 23. Any collector may, with consent of the owner, remove personal property for sale to any town or place, where it may be sold to the best advantage, giving notice to the owner as before provided, and giving notice as provided by section twenty of this chapter, in the town or place where the sale is to be made.

Collector may remove personal property for sale.

SEC. 24. If any person or property taxed in one town removes or is removed into another town before the tax is collected, the collector may follow such person or property into any town, and levy or collect the tax with the same power as if not removed.

May follow persons or property to any town.

SEC. 25. Any sale of real or personal estate or of any interest therein, liable for the payment of taxes by the provisions of this chapter, may be adjourned from time to time.

Sale may be adjourned.

SEC. 26. The collector of any tax may recover the amount thereof in an action of the case against the person taxed, and in the declaration it shall be sufficient to set forth that the action is to recover a specified sum of money, being a tax assessed against the defendant, specifying the town in which said tax was assessed and the time of ordering and assessing the same.

Collector may recover tax, how.

SEC. 27. If judgment be rendered in favor of the collector, he shall have an allowance for his reasonable trouble in attending to the suit, to be taxed by the court in the bill of costs, and execution shall issue against the real and personal estate of the defendant, and the levy of the execution upon any real estate, upon which a lien for such tax is created by this chapter, shall be deemed to relate back, and take effect from the time of commencement of such lien.

Judgment in such a case; execution, how to issue; effect of levy.

SEC. 28. If any person legally taxed shall be out of the state, or depart therefrom, leaving no property liable for the tax, the collector may summon the attorney, agent, factor, trustee or debtor of such person before the district court of Proceedings, persons taxed being out of the state.

the district in which the town where the tax is assessed is situated, to declare on oath how much property, if any, of such absent person, he has in his possession; and if he has sufficient property he shall forthwith pay such tax and charges, or deliver to the collector sufficient property therefor.

Warrant of distress to issue, when.

SEC. 29. If any person so summoned shall neglect to appear, or refuse to make oath, or having made oath shall refuse to pay such tax and charges, or to deliver to the collector sufficient property therefor, if such he has, such district court shall forthwith grant to the collector a warrant of distress against the proper goods and chattels of such person so summoned, and the collector may distrain and sell the same wherever found, or so much thereof as will pay the tax and all interest and expenses, in manner provided by this chapter; and said district court shall have jurisdiction in the premises, although the amount involved shall exceed three hundred dollars.

Warrants in force until tax is collected.

SEC. 34. All warrants for the collecting of taxes shall continue in force until the whole tax is collected, notwithstanding the time appointed for collecting the tax, or the year of office, may have expired, and notwithstanding the collector may have paid the tax into the town treasury.

Collector may require aid.

SEC. 35. Every collector shall have the same right to require the aid or assistance of the persons present, in the performance of his duty, which a sheriff now has by law.

divided as equally as may be into three classes, whose several terms of office shall expire at the end of three years from the dates of their respective elections ; and in the case of the first election of a school committee under this chapter, the terms of office of the three classes shall be respectively one year, two years and three years ; the classes and their terms of office to be determined by lot by the committee at their first meeting after their election. As the office of each class shall become vacant, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the town at its annual town meeting for the election of state or town officers, or by the town council at its next meeting thereafter. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise than as is above provided, such vacancy shall be filled by the town council until the next annual town meeting for state or town officers, when it shall be filled for the unexpired term thereof as is above provided.

Superintendents of schools, how and when to be elected.

SEC. 8. The school committee of each town shall elect a superintendent of the public schools of the town, to perform, under the advice and direction of the committee, such duties, and to exercise such powers, as the committee shall assign him, and to receive such compensation out of the town treasury as the town shall vote. Said superintendent shall be elected at the first regular meeting of the school committee succeeding the annual election of school committee ; but the committee shall have power to fill a vacancy at any meeting duly called.

Town treasurer to receive school money, and account therefor.

SEC. 9. The town treasurer shall receive the money due the town from the state for public schools, and shall keep a separate account of all money appropriated by the state or town or otherwise for public schools in the town, and shall pay the same to the order of the school committee, and he shall credit the public school account, on the first Monday of May in each year, with the total amount of money received by him for poll taxes during the year ending the thirtieth day of April last preceding.

SEC. 10. The town treasurer shall, before the first day of July in each year, submit to the school committee a statement of all moneys applicable to the support of public schools for the current school year, specifying the sources of the same.

To submit statement thereof to school committee.

SEC. 11. The town treasurer shall, on or before the first day of July, annually, transmit to the commissioner of public schools a certificate of the amount which the town has voted to raise by tax for the support of public schools for the current year; and also a statement of the amount paid out to the order of the school committee, and from what sources it was derived, for the year ending the thirtieth day of April next preceding; and until such return is made to the commissioner, he may, in his discretion, withhold the order for the money in the state treasury belonging to such town.

Also to commissioner of public schools.

SEC. 12. The town clerk shall record the boundaries of school districts and all alterations thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall distribute such school documents and blanks as shall be sent to him, to the persons for whom they are intended.

Town clerk to keep record of boundaries of school districts, and distribute school documents.

SEC. 13. The town clerks, or some person whom the board of aldermen of any city, or the town council of any town, shall appoint for the purpose, shall annually, in the month of January, take or cause to be taken a census of all persons between the ages of five and fifteen years, inclusive, residing within the limits of their respective towns on the first day of said January.

Census of children of school age.

who shall thereupon be fully authorized to proceed and collect the same, upon giving bond therefor to the district satisfactory to the school committee.

School committee to organize the school when.

SEC. 9. If any school district shall neglect to organize, or, if organized, shall for any space of six months neglect to establish a school and employ a teacher, the school committee of the town may themselves or by an agent establish a school in the district schoolhouse, or elsewhere in the district, in their discretion, and employ a teacher.

District may devolve its powers on school committee.

SEC. 10. Any district may, with the consent of the school committee, devolve all the powers and duties relating to public schools in the district on the school committee.

CHAPTER 56.

Of District Meetings.

SECTION

1. Meetings, notice of, how and by whom to be given.
2. Annual meeting, when held.
3. Special meetings, how called.
4. District meeting, where held.

SECTION

5. Notice of time and place, how to be given.
6. Qualification of voters.
7. Clerk to record names of voters on request.

Notice of meeting for organization, or of other meetings, by whom to be given.

SECTION 1. Notice of the time, place and object of holding the first meeting of a district for organization or for a meeting, either annual or special, to choose officers or to transact any other business, shall be given by the trustees or, in case of the death, removal, resignation or disability of the trustees, by the clerk of the district; in case there be no trustee or clerk authorized to call a meeting such notice shall be given by the school committee of the town.

Annual meeting.

SEC. 2. Every school district when organized, shall hold an annual meeting in the month of April of each year for choice of officers and for the transaction of any other business relating to schools.

SEC. 3. The trustees or, in case of the death, removal, resignation or disability of the trustees, the clerk may call a special meeting for election or other business at any time, and shall call one to be held within seven days on the written request of any five qualified electors stating the object for which they wish it called; and if the trustees or clerk, as above provided, neglect or refuse to call a special meeting when so requested, the school committee may call it and fix the time therefor: Provided, that no special district meeting shall be called without the consent of the school committee, to consider any subject which shall have been acted on by the district at any time within six months previous to the time of such proposed meeting.

Special meetings, how called.

Consent of school committee required, when.

SEC. 4. District meetings shall be held in the schoolhouse, unless otherwise ordered by the district. If there be no schoolhouse or place appointed by the district for its meetings, the trustees or, in case of the death, removal, resignation or disability of the trustees, the clerk, and, if there be no trustees or clerk, the school committee, shall determine the place, which shall always be within the district.

District meeting to be held, where.

SEC. 5. Notice of the time and place of every annual meeting, and of the time, place and object of every special meeting, shall be given, either by publishing the same in a newspaper published in the district, or by posting the same in two or more public places in the district for five days before holding the same.

Notice, how given.

SEC. 6. Every person residing in the district may vote in district meetings to the same extent and with the same restrictions as he might at the time vote in town meeting; but no person shall vote upon any question of taxation of property, or expending money raised thereby, unless he shall have paid or be liable to pay, a portion of the tax.

Qualification of voters.

Of Joint School Districts.

SECTION

1. Adjoining districts may establish advanced school.
2. Such districts to constitute a district as to such school.
3. Organization.
4. Public money, how drawn.
5. Adjoining districts in the same town may consolidate.
6. To receive public money as if not united.
7. Organization.
8. Adjoining districts, or parts, in

SECTION

- adjoining towns may be formed into joint districts, and discontinued.
9. Organization.
10. Powers of such joint district.
11. Public money to be apportioned.
12. Corporate property, how owned.
13. Apportionment, when district is divided.
14. Payment when, by part of a district added to district.

Adjoining districts may establish an advanced school.

SECTION 1. Any two or more adjoining school districts in the same or adjoining towns may, by a concurrent vote, establish a school for the older and more advanced children of such districts.

Such districts are a school district as to such school.

SEC. 2. Such associating districts shall constitute a school district for the purposes of providing a schoolhouse, fuel, furniture and apparatus, and for the election of a board of trustees, to consist of one member from each district so associating, and for levying a tax for school purposes, with all the rights and privileges of a school district, so far as such school is concerned.

Organization.

SEC. 3. The time and place for the meeting for organization of such associate district may be fixed by the school committees, and any one or more of the associating districts may delegate to the trustees of such school the care and management of its primary school.

SEC. 4. The school committee of the town or towns in which such school shall be established, shall draw an order in favor of the trustees of such school, to be paid out of the public money appropriated to each district interested in such school, in proportion to the number of scholars from each.

Public money, how to be drawn.

SEC. 5. Any two or more adjoining school districts in the same town may, by concurrent vote, with the approbation of the school committee, unite and be consolidated into one district for the purpose of supporting public schools, and such consolidated district shall have all the powers of a single district.

Adjoining districts in same town may consolidate.

SEC. 6. Such consolidated district shall be entitled to receive the same proportion of public money as such districts would receive if not united.

Entitled to state aid as if not consolidated.

SEC. 7. The mode of organizing such consolidated district and calling the first meeting thereof shall be regulated or prescribed by the school committee, and notice thereof given as prescribed in section five of chapter fifty-six.

Organization.

SEC. 8. Two or more adjoining districts, or parts of districts, in adjoining towns may be formed into a joint school district by the school committees of such towns concurring therein; and all joint districts which have been or shall be formed may by them be altered or discontinued.

Adjoining districts or parts thereof in adjoining towns may be formed, or discontinued, as joint school districts.

SEC. 9. The meeting for organization of such joint district shall be called by the school committees of such towns, and notice thereof shall be given as prescribed in section five of chapter fifty-six.

Organization.

SEC. 10. Such joint district shall have all the powers of a single school district, and shall be regulated in the same manner, and shall be subject to the supervision and management of the school committee of the town in which the school is located.

Powers of such joint district.

State aid to be apportioned.

SEC. 11. A whole district making a portion of such joint district shall be entitled to its proportion of public money, in the same manner as if it had remained a single district; and whenever part of a district is taken to form a portion of such joint district, the school committee of the town of which such district is a part shall assign to it its reasonable proportion.

Corporate property.

SEC. 12. Whenever any two or more districts shall be consolidated, the new district shall own all the corporate property of the several districts.

Apportionment, when district is divided.

SEC. 13. Whenever a district is divided and a portion taken from it, the funds and property, or the income and proceeds thereof, shall be divided among the several parts in such manner as the school committee of the town or towns to which the districts belong may determine.

Contribution, when, by part of a district added to district.

SEC. 14. Whenever a part of one district is added to another district or part of a district owning a schoolhouse or other property, such part shall pay to the district or part of a district to which it is added, if demanded, such sum as the school committee may determine, towards paying for such schoolhouse and other property.

CHAPTER 58.

Of the Levy of District Taxes.

SECTION

1. District taxes, how levied.
2. Town assessors to assess value of property in what cases.
3. Notice of assessment.
4. Commissioner in certain cases may order assessment.
5. Errors in assessment, how corrected.

SECTION

6. Abatement of taxes, when and how made.
7. Schoolhouse taxes and expenses by joint districts, by whom to be approved.
8. Assessment of taxes in joint or associated districts.

SECTION 1. District taxes shall be levied on the ratable property of the district, according to its value in the town assessment then last made, unless the district shall direct such taxes to be levied according to the next town assessment; and no notice thereof shall be required to be given by the trustees.

District taxes, how to be levied.

SEC. 2. The trustees of any school district, if unable to agree with the parties interested with regard to the valuation of any property in such district, shall call upon one or more of the town assessors not interested, and not residing in the district, to assess the value of such property so situated, in the following cases, namely: Whenever any real estate in the district is assessed in the town tax bill with real estate out of the district, so that there is no distinct or separate value upon it; whenever any person possessing personal property shall remove into the district after the last town assessment; whenever a division and apportionment of a tax shall become necessary by reason of the death of any person, or the sale of such property; whenever a person has invested personal property in real estate and shall call upon the trustees to place a value thereon; and whenever property shall have been omitted in the town valuation.

Assessors to assess value of property, in what case.

SEC. 3. The assessors shall give notice of such assessment by posting up notices thereof for ten days next prior to such assessment in three public places in the district; and after notice is given as aforesaid, no person neglecting to appear before the assessors shall have any remedy for being over-taxed.

Notice of assessment.

SEC. 4. If a district tax shall be voted, assessed and approved of, and a contract legally entered into under it, or such contract be legally entered into without such vote, assessment, or approval, and said district shall thereafter neglect or refuse to proceed to assess and collect a tax sufficient to fulfill such contract, the commissioner of public schools, after notice to and hearing of the parties, may appoint assessors to assess a tax for that purpose, and may issue a warrant to the collector of the district, or to a collector by him appointed, authorizing and requiring him to proceed and collect such tax.

Errors, how corrected.

SEC. 5. Errors in assessing a tax may be corrected, or the tax re-assessed, in such manner as may be directed or approved by the commissioner of public schools.

Abatement of taxes, when and how made.

SEC. 6. Whenever any person who has paid a tax for building or repairing a schoolhouse in one district shall, by alteration of the boundaries thereof, become liable to pay a tax in any other district, if such person cannot agree with the district, such abatement of the tax may be made as the school committee, or in case of a district composed from different towns, as the commissioner of public schools, may deem just and proper.

Schoolhouse taxes and expenses by joint district, how approved.

SEC. 7. Whenever a joint district shall vote to build or repair a schoolhouse by tax, the amount of the tax and the plan and specifications of the building and repairs shall be approved by the school committees of the several towns, or, in case of their disagreement, by the commissioner of public schools.

Assessment of taxes in joint or associated districts.

SEC. 8. In case of assessing a tax by a joint or associate district, if the town assessments be made on different principles, or the relative value be not the same, the relative value and proportion shall be ascertained by one or more persons, to be appointed by the commissioner of public schools, and the assessment shall be made accordingly.

CHAPTER 59.

Of the Trustees of School Districts.

SECTION

1. Trustees to have charge of the school property, and to employ teachers.

other lawful acts required of them by the district, or necessary to carry into full effect the powers and duties of districts.

To receive no compensation out of the school moneys.

SEC. 6. The trustees shall receive no compensation for services out of the money received from either the state or town appropriations, nor in any way, unless raised by tax by the district.

May admit scholars from without town or state, when.

SEC. 7. The trustees of any school district may allow scholars from without the town or the state to attend the public schools of such district, on such terms as the trustees may determine: Provided, that such terms shall be approved by the school committee.

Same subject: School committee may, when.

SEC. 8. Whenever a town shall not be divided into school districts, or whenever public schools shall be provided without reference to such division, the school committee may exercise the powers provided in the preceding section to be exercised by trustees.

Tuition money, how to be applied.

SEC. 9. All moneys received for tuition as hereinbefore provided shall be paid into the district or town treasury, as the case may be, and shall be used for school purposes only.

Such attendance to be reckoned, where.

SEC. 10. No attendance upon the public schools authorized by the preceding three sections shall be reckoned in determining the average attendance for the purpose of regulating the distribution of school money; but such average attendance shall be returned to the district where such scholars reside, and be there reckoned with the average attendance of the schools of that district, upon demand by the trustee thereof.

CHAPTER 60.

Of the Powers and Duties of School Committees.

SECTION

1. Chairman and clerk, how chosen and removed.
2. Stated meetings, when held.
3. Committee may alter and discontinue districts.

fore holding the same ; and no new district shall be formed with less than forty children between the ages of four and sixteen, unless with the approbation of the commissioner of public schools ; and the clerk of the committee shall transmit to the town clerk a certified copy of all votes affecting the boundary lines of the districts immediately on the passage thereof.

Location of the school-houses.

SEC. 4. The school committee shall locate all schoolhouses, and shall not abandon or change the location of any without good cause.

Land for a schoolhouse site, taken without owners' consent, is how appraised.

SEC. 5. In case the school committee shall fix upon a location for a schoolhouse in any town or district, or shall determine that the schoolhouse lot ought to be enlarged, and the town or district shall have passed a vote to erect a schoolhouse, or to enlarge the schoolhouse lot, and the committee shall fix upon a location for a schoolhouse, and the proprietor of the land shall refuse to convey the same, or cannot agree with the town or district for the price thereof, the school committee of their own motion, or on application of the town or district, may appoint three disinterested persons, who shall notify the parties and decide upon the valuation of the land ; and upon the tender or payment of the sum so fixed on, to the proprietor, the title to the land so fixed on by the school committee, not exceeding one acre, shall vest in the town or district for the purpose of maintaining thereon a schoolhouse and the necessary appendages thereof.

Persons aggrieved may petition for relief to common pleas division.

SEC. 6. Any person aggrieved thereby may, within six months after any tender as aforesaid (but not after any payment as aforesaid), petition the common pleas division of the supreme court in the county for such relief in the premises, by way of damages or otherwise, as to law and justice shall appertain, in the manner and with the same procedure prescribed in sections fifteen and sixteen of chapter forty-six in the case of petition for relief for over-assessment for taxes.

SEC. 7. The school committees of the several towns shall make provision for the instruction of the pupils in all schools supported wholly, or in part, by public money, in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic liquors, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system.

Instruction in physiology and hygiene.

SEC. 8. The school committee may examine, by themselves or by some one or more persons by them appointed, every applicant for the situation of teacher in the public schools of the town, and may, after five days' notice in writing, annul the certificate of such as upon examination by them proved unqualified, or will not conform to the regulations of the committee, and in such case shall give immediate notice thereof to the trustee of the district in which such teacher is employed. (See Chap. 544, Sec. 9-12, Pub. Laws.)

Committee to examine teachers; to annul certificates, when.

SEC. 9. The school committee shall visit, by one or more of their number, every public school in the town at least twice during each term, once within two weeks of its opening and once within two weeks of its close; at which visits they shall examine the register and matters touching the school-house, library, studies, books, discipline, modes of teaching and improvement of the school.

To visit the schools.

SEC. 10. The school committee shall make and cause to be put up in each schoolhouse, rules and regulations for the attendance and classification of the pupils, for the introduction and use of text-books and works of reference, and for the instruction, government and discipline of the public schools, and shall prescribe the studies to be pursued therein, under the direction of the commissioner of public schools.

To make rules for the schools.

child residing in said town to attend school in an adjoining town or district, said committee may arrange with the school authorities of such town or district for the attendance of such child at their schools, and may pay for such tuition out of the town appropriation for public schools. The amount so paid shall be used for school purposes only. (See Chap. 544, Sec. 3, Pub. Laws.)

May suspend pupils.

SEC. 12. The school committee may suspend during pleasure all pupils found guilty of incorrigibly bad conduct or of violation of the school regulations.

To manage schools, when.

SEC. 13. Where a town is not divided into districts, or shall vote in a meeting duly notified for that purpose to provide schools without reference to such division, the school committee shall manage and regulate said schools, and draw all orders for the payment of their expenses.

Apportionment of the state school money to the districts.

SEC. 14. Whenever the public schools are maintained by district organization, the committee shall apportion among the districts, equally, according to the number of schools maintained in each, the whole of the town's proportion of the one hundred and twenty thousand dollars received from the state, and in addition thereto at least one fourth as much more from the town appropriation for the support of public schools; the remainder of the town appropriation, and the moneys received from poll and dog taxes, from school funds, and from other sources, shall be divided into two equal parts, one part to be apportioned to the several districts, according to the average attendance of the schools therein, for the year preceding; the other part to be apportioned at the discretion of the committee: Provided always, that the total apportionment for each school shall not be less than one hundred and eighty dollars.

Minimum of money to each school.

Apportionment, when to be made, and what notice given.

SEC. 15. The school committee shall make the apportionment among the several districts as provided in the preceding section on or before the first Monday of July in each year, and immediately thereafter give notice to the trustees of the amount so apportioned to each district.

SEC. 16. The school committee shall draw an order on the town treasurer in favor of such districts only as shall have made a return to them in manner and form prescribed by them or by the commissioner of public schools, or as may be required by law, from which it shall appear that for the year ending on the first day of May previous one or more public schools have been kept for at least six months by a qualified teacher in a schoolhouse approved by the committee or commissioner, that the money designated "teachers' money," received the year previous, has been applied to the wages of teachers and to no other purpose, and that the register properly kept has been deposited with the committee or with some person by them appointed to receive the same.

Orders on the town treasurer in favor of the districts, when to be drawn by the school committee.

SEC. 17. Such orders may be made payable to the trustees or their order, or to the district treasurer, or teacher; and if the treasurer receive the money, he shall pay it out to the order of the trustees.

To whom payable.

SEC. 18. The school committee shall give no such order, until they are satisfied that the services have actually been performed for which the money is to be paid; and they shall have power, in case the average attendance of any school falls below five, to suspend said school in their discretion and to make such other provisions as they may deem best for the attendance of the children, properly belonging to said school, upon some other public school; but such suspension shall not work the forfeiture of the public money to any district provided for by section sixteen of this chapter. The school committee may allow scholars residing in one district to attend school in any other district. (See Chap. 544, Secs. 1, 7, 8, Pub. Laws.)

Orders, when to be drawn. School committee may suspend school in certain cases. See section 11.

propriated to any district which shall be forfeited and the forfeiture not remitted, or which shall remain unexpended, shall be divided by the committee among the districts the following year.

Annual report of the school committee.

SEC. 20. The school committee shall prepare and submit annually to the commissioner of public schools, on or before the first day of July, a report in manner and form by him prescribed; and until such report is made to the commissioner, he may refuse to draw his order for the money in the state treasury belonging to such town: Provided, that the necessary blank for said report has been furnished by the commissioner on or before the first day of May next preceding; they shall also prepare and submit annually, at the annual town meeting, a report to the town, setting forth their doings, the state and condition of the schools and plans for their improvement, which report, unless printed, shall be read in open town meeting; and if printed, at least three copies shall be transmitted to the commissioner on or before the first day of July in each year.

Printing report, how paid for.

SEC. 21. The school committee may reserve annually out of the public appropriation, a sum not exceeding forty dollars to defray the expense of printing their annual report.

School committee to furnish books and supplies.

SEC. 22. The school committee of every city and town shall purchase, at the expense of such city or town, text-books and other school supplies used in the public schools; and said text-books and supplies shall be loaned to the pupils of said public schools free of charge, subject to such rules and regulations as to care and custody as the school committee may prescribe.

Change in the school books how made.

SEC. 23. A change may be made in the school books in the public schools of any town by a vote of two-thirds of the whole school committee; and in the city of Providence by a vote of a majority of all the members elected to the school committee, notice of the proposed change having been given in writing at a previous regular meeting of said committee: Provided, that no change be made in any text-book in the public schools of any town oftener than once in three years, unless by the consent of the board of education.

Judgment against a school district,
how to be satisfied.

SEC. 8. Whenever judgment shall be recovered in any court of record against any school district the court rendering judgment shall order a warrant to be issued, if no proceedings operating as a stay be taken, to the assessors of taxes of the town in which such district is situated, or, in case of a joint district composed of parts of towns, then to one or more of the assessors of each town, with or without designating them, requiring them to assess upon the ratable property in said district a tax sufficient to pay the debts or damages, costs, interest and a sum in the discretion of the court sufficient to defray the expenses of assessment and collection. Said assessors shall, without a new engagement, proceed to assess the same, giving notice as in case of other district taxes.

Same subject.

SEC. 9. Said warrant shall also contain a direction to the collector of the town, or, in case of a joint district, then to the collector of either town, as the court may direct, requiring him to collect said tax ; and said warrant, with the assessment annexed thereto, shall be a sufficient authority for the collector, without a special engagement, to proceed and collect the same with the same power as in the case of a town tax ; and when collected, he shall pay over the same to the parties to whom it may belong, and the surplus, if any, to the district. And the court may require a bond of the collector.

SEC. 10. Whenever any writ, summons or other process shall issue against any school district in any civil suit, the same may be served on the treasurer or clerk ; and if there are no such officers to be found, the officer charged with the same may post up a certified copy thereof on the door of the schoolhouse, and, if there be no schoolhouse, then in some public place in the district, and the same, when proved to the satisfaction of the court, shall constitute a sufficient service thereof.

Process against district, how served.

SEC. 11. The record of the district clerk that a meeting has been duly or legally notified shall be prima facie evidence that it has been notified as the law requires. The clerk shall obtain at the expense of the district a suitably bound book for keeping the record therein.

Record of clerk, prima facie evidence.

SEC. 12. The commissioner of public schools may, by and with the advice and consent of the board of education, remit all fines, penalties and forfeitures incurred by any town, district or person, under any of the provisions of this title, except the forfeiture incurred by any town for not raising its proportion of money.

School commissioner may remit fines, when.

if the person so charged shall prove, or shall present a certificate, made by or under the direction of the school committee of the city or town wherein he resides, setting forth that the child has attended for the required period of time a private day school approved by the school committee of the city or town where said school is located, or that the child has been otherwise furnished for a like period of time with the means of education, or has already acquired the elementary branches of learning taught in the public schools, or that his physical or mental condition was such as to render his attendance inexpedient or impracticable, or that the child was destitute of clothing suitable for attending school and that the person in charge of said child was unable to provide such clothing, or that the child has been excused from attending school by the school committee of the city or town where he resides, then such penalty shall not be incurred. (See Chap. 587, Pub. Laws.)

What private schools may be approved.

SEC. 2. For the purposes of this chapter the school committees of the several towns and cities shall approve a private school only when the teaching therein is in the English language and when they are satisfied that such teaching is thorough and efficient, and when the persons in charge of said school shall keep the record of the attendance of the pupils thereof upon the blanks provided by the state for such purpose and shall render to the school committee of the town or city where said school is located a detailed report of the attendance of any pupil for any specified time: Provided, that the request for such report is made in writing and sets forth that such pupil is suspected of irregular attendance or truancy.

Truant officers; how appointed, and their duties.

SEC. 3. The town council of each town, and the board of aldermen of each city, shall annually appoint one or more special constables, and fix their compensation, who shall be truant officers and who shall, under the direction of the school committee, inquire into all cases arising under the provisions of this chapter, or under any ordinances made in pursuance thereof by the town or city by which such officers were appointed, and shall alone be authorized, in case of violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any such ordinances, to make complaint therefor; they shall also serve all legal processes issued in pursuance of this chapter or of any such ordinances, but shall not be entitled to receive any fees for such service: Provided, however, that in case of the commitment of any person under the provisions of any section of this chapter, or of any ordinance made in pursuance thereof, or for default of payment of any fine and costs imposed thereunder, such officer shall be entitled to the regular fees allowed by law for similar service.

In what cases fees to be allowed.

SEC. 4. The truant officers and the school committees of the several towns and cities shall inquire into all cases of neglect of the duty prescribed in section one of this chapter within their respective towns and cities, and ascertain the reasons, if any, therefor; and such truant officers, or any of them, shall, when so directed by the school committee, prosecute any person liable to the penalty provided for in said section one.

Inquiry to be made into causes of neglect to attend school.

SEC. 5. No child between the ages of twelve and fifteen years shall be employed in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, or by any telegraph or telephone company in this state, except during the vacations of the public schools of the city, town or district in which such child resides, unless, during the twelve months next preceding such employment, he shall have attended school as provided for in section one of this chapter, or shall have already acquired the elementary branches of learning taught in the public schools, or shall have been excused by the school committee of the town or city in which such child resides; nor shall such employment continue unless such child shall attend school as above provided each year, or until he shall have acquired the elementary branches of learning taught in the public schools.

Employer to keep on file what certificate of children.

SEC. 6. No child between the ages of twelve and fifteen years shall be so employed who does not present a certificate made by or under the direction of the school committee of the city or town in which such child resides, of his compliance with the requirements of section five of this chapter; and said certificate shall also give the place and date of birth of such child as nearly accurate as may be; and every owner, superintendent or overseer, of any establishment or company employing any such child shall keep such certificate on file so long as such child is employed therein. The form of said certificate shall be furnished by the secretary of the state board of education.

Penalty on employer, parent or guardian.

SEC. 7. Every owner, superintendent or overseer of any such establishment or company who employs or permits to be employed any child in violation of either of the two next preceding sections, and every parent or guardian who permits such employment, shall be fined not exceeding twenty dollars.

Truant officers to visit places of employment, and report.

SEC. 8. The truant officers shall, at least once in every school term, and as often as the school committee require, visit the establishments or companies employing such children in their respective towns and cities, and ascertain whether the provisions of the three next preceding sections hereof are duly observed, and report all violations thereof to the school committee.

To demand names of children employed and require certificates.

SEC. 9. The truant officers shall demand the names of the children under fifteen years of age employed in such establishments or companies in their respective towns and cities, and shall require the certificates of age and school attendance, prescribed in section six of this chapter, to be produced for their inspection; and a refusal to produce such certificates shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars. Penalty.

SEC. 10. Every owner, superintendent or overseer of any such establishment or company who employs or permits to be employed therein a child under fifteen years of age who cannot write his name, age and place of residence legibly, while the public schools in the town or city where such child lives are in session, shall for every such offence be fined not exceeding twenty dollars. Penalty for employing children unable to read or write, while the public schools are in session.

SEC. 11. The town council of each town, and the city council of each city, shall make all needful provisions and arrangements concerning habitual truants and children who may be found wandering about in the streets or public places therein, having no lawful occupation or business, not attending school and growing up in ignorance, and shall make such ordinances as will be most conducive to the welfare of such children and to the good order of such town or city; and shall designate or provide suitable places for the confinement, discipline and instruction of such children. Ordinances are to be made concerning truants and idle children.

SEC. 12. Every minor convicted, under an ordinance made under the provisions of section eleven of this chapter, of being an habitual truant, or of wandering about in the streets and public places of a town or city, or of having no lawful employment or business, or of not attending school and of growing up in ignorance, shall be committed to any institution of instruction or suitable place designated or provided for the purpose under the authority of said section eleven, for a period not exceeding two years. Penalty for truancy and for idleness under such ordinances.

SEC. 13. Children so committed may, on satisfactory proof of amendment or for other sufficient cause, be discharged from such institution or place by the court which committed them. Discharge of truants and idle children.

School committee to report under this chapter.

In cases of failure, school money is to be withheld.

SEC. 14. The school committees of the several towns and cities shall annually report to the state board of education whether their towns or cities have made the provisions required by this chapter; and in case the town council of any town, or the board of aldermen and city council of any city, shall in any year refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of section three and section eleven of this chapter, or of either of them, after having been duly notified by the commissioner of public schools, fifty per centum of the money apportioned to such city or town from the state for school purposes shall be withheld until the provisions of said section three and section eleven of this chapter have been complied with.

Fines, how to inure.

SEC. 15. All fines under the provisions of this chapter shall inure and be applied to the support of the public schools in the town or city where the offence was committed.

Jurisdiction of district courts.

SEC. 16. The district courts of the state shall have jurisdiction in their respective districts of all cases arising under this chapter and all ordinances passed in conformity with this chapter.

Officers complaining not required to give surety for costs.

SEC. 17. No officer complaining under any of the provisions of this chapter, or under the provisions of any ordinance that may be passed in pursuance hereof, shall be required to give surety for costs; and such officer shall not in anywise become liable for any costs that may accrue on such complaint.

They shall at all times be subject to removal by the governor for neglect of duty or malfeasance in the discharge of duty; and in case of removal as aforesaid, or of vacancies in said offices from any cause, the governor shall appoint successors to fill such vacancies for the unexpired term of said office. The said inspectors shall be empowered to visit and inspect, at all reasonable hours, and as often as practicable, the factories, workshops and other establishments in the state employing women or children, and shall report to the general assembly of this state at its January session in each year, including in said report the names of the factories, the number of such hands employed, and the number of hours' work performed each week. It shall also be the duty of said inspectors to enforce the provisions of this chapter, and to prosecute all violations of the same before any court of competent jurisdiction in the state. The said inspectors shall devote their whole time and attention to the duties of their respective offices. In case of any conflict of authority between the said inspectors, either of them may apply for instructions to the governor, whose decision of the controversy, after hearing the statement of each inspector and making such further investigation of the circumstances as he may deem necessary, shall be final.

SEC. 2. Said trustees, other than the governor and lieutenant-governor, shall be appointed by the governor; and said trustees now in office shall continue to serve, in classes of three each, for and during the terms for which they were appointed, respectively; and in the year eighteen hundred ninety-seven, and once in every two years thereafter, three trustees in the said board shall in the same manner be appointed for a term of six years, to fill the places of those whose terms shall have expired; and vacancies which may occur from death and resignation shall be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term. The members of said board of trustees shall receive no compensation for their services.

SEC. 3. The board of trustees may admit such persons therein as hereinafter is provided. (See Chapter 332, Public Laws.)

Power of the board of trustees to admit.

SEC. 4. Deaf persons between the ages of three and twenty years, and of sufficient capacity for instruction, who are legal residents of the state, shall be entitled to the privilege of the school without charge, and for such period of time in each individual case as may be deemed expedient by the board of trustees; residents of other states may be admitted upon the payment of such rates of board and tuition as may be fixed by the board of trustees. The primary object of the school shall be to furnish to the deaf children of this state, oral instruction, and the best known facilities for the enjoyment of such a share of the benefits of the system of free public education as their afflicted condition will admit of. The board of trustees shall have charge of the affairs of the institution, with power to make such by-laws and regulations for the government thereof (not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter) as they may deem expedient. They shall elect from their own number a president and secretary, together with such standing committees as they may deem necessary. They shall appoint a principal who shall be the chief executive officer of the institution, and shall have charge of the educational and internal affairs of the institution, and shall also, upon the nomination of the principal, appoint teachers and subordinate officers, prescribe the duties and terms of service of the same, and fix their salaries, and for just cause remove any or all of them. They shall likewise employ the requisite number of servants and other assistants,

Board of control.

SECTION 1. The control and maintenance of the state home and school for dependent and neglected children shall continue to be vested in a board of control, to be called the "board of control of the state home and school." Said school shall be known as the State Home and School for Children.

Number of board.

SEC. 2. The said board shall consist of seven persons, four of whom shall be men and three women, and, in addition, of such person as may be secretary of said board. The terms of office of the members of said board shall begin on the first day of July. Terms of office.

SEC. 3. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint the members of said board, other than the secretary ; and he shall annually, upon the expiration of the term of office of any of said board, appoint persons to such office in place of those whose terms shall expire, and every person so appointed shall hold his office for three years, unless sooner removed. Every appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the remainder of the term. How appointed.

SEC. 4. Said board may appoint a secretary, who shall by virtue of his office be a member of the board ; he shall give bond to the state in such sum as the board may require, for the faithful performance of his duties ; he shall keep a record of all the doings of said board, and shall perform such other duties as may be by them required. Such secretary shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. Secretary, duties and term of office.

SEC. 5. No member of the board, except the secretary, shall receive any compensation for his services, but every member shall be paid out of the state treasury his necessary travelling expenses. Compensation to the secretary only, but travelling expenses to all.

SEC. 6. The said board shall establish a system of government for the institution, and shall make all necessary rules and regulations for imparting instruction, and for the proper training of the children. They shall appoint such officers, teachers and employees as shall be necessary, and prescribe their duties and fix their salaries. Government of the school.

SEC. 7. They shall receive, in accordance with rules by them established, such children as may be declared vagrant, neglected and dependent on the public for support, as provided in this chapter, who are over four and under fourteen years of age, and who are in a suitable condition of mind and What children are to be received.

body to be instructed ; for exceptional reasons, children under four years may be received, should the board deem it advisable. Any child who shall be found by the board to be of unsound mind, or who may be considered by the board an improper inmate of said institution, shall be forthwith returned by them to the authorities from whom said child was received, who are hereby required to receive the same ; and all children admitted shall remain until they are eighteen years of age, unless otherwise ordered by the board.

Object of the school, and duty of the board to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 8. It is declared to be the object of this chapter to provide for neglected and dependent children, not recognized as vicious or criminal, such influences as will lead toward an honest, intelligent and self-supporting manhood and womanhood, the state, so far as possible, holding to them the parental relation. But if at any time, in the discretion of the board, this object can be better attained by placing a child in a good family, they shall have the power to do so on condition that its education shall be provided for by such family in the public schools of the town or city where they may reside. The board are hereby made the legal guardians of all the children who may become inmates of the home and school, and charged with the duty of following such children as may be placed in families, with watchful care, and of taking them back to their own immediate supervision if at any time they fail to receive kind and proper treatment and a fair elementary education ; and in case any child shall leave without permission, or be taken by any person unauthorized from said institution or from any family where it shall have been placed by said board, then said board is hereby authorized to take and restore said child to said institution or to the family.

Certain officers are to bring the children, contemplated by this chapter, before court of probate.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of the superintendents or overseers of the poor in the several towns to, and any agent of the Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children may, bring before the courts of probate of such towns for examination, children supported in poorhouses or otherwise dependent on the public for support, or other children found to be in a state of vagrancy, want, or suffering, or abandoned by their parents or guardians or not having any home or settled abode or proper guardianship; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the court of probate before whom any such child is brought, to investigate the facts and ascertain if the child is so supported, or is in a state of vagrancy, want, and suffering, or is abandoned by its parents or guardians, or is without home or settled abode or proper guardianship, and also to ascertain its name, age and place of birth, and the names and residence of its parents or guardians, if it have any, and where and for what length of time, if at all, it has been supported at the expense of the town or state; and said courts of probate shall have power to compel attendance of witnesses. The parents or any friend may appear in behalf of any child, and the court of probate in its discretion may request some suitable person to appear in behalf of any child; and if on such examination the court shall find that such child is so supported or dependent, or is in a state of vagrancy, want, and suffering, or is so abandoned, or without home or settled abode or proper guardianship, it shall make a proper order containing a statement of the facts ascertained as to said child, and entrusting said child to the care and custody of the said board, together with a direction to the superintendent or overseer of the poor to take said child to the state home and school, and shall deliver to the superintendent or overseer of the poor, or other person procuring such examination, a certified copy thereof. Such certified copy of such order shall then be delivered with the child at the home and school, to the presiding officer thereof. All expenses attending the foregoing proceedings shall be paid by the town or city in which the child belongs: Provided, that children between the ages of four and fourteen supported in the state almshouse may be brought before the probate court of the town

Register of children.

SEC. 10. The board shall provide a book in which shall be registered the names, ages and places of birth of the children under their care ; the residence of the parents or guardians as nearly as can be ascertained ; the date when each child is received and from what town, and when he leaves the school ; and whenever a child is placed in a family, the name, residence and occupation of such family ; and such book shall be open at all times for the inspection of the probate clerks and the overseers of the poor of the several cities and towns of the state.

Annual report to be made to state board of education.

SEC. 11. The said board of control shall annually report to the state board of education, in the month of November, upon the condition of the school, the number of inmates thereof, the expenditures for the year, and their estimates for the year ensuing, together with such other matters as may seem desirable ; which report shall be included by said state board of education in its annual report to the general assembly.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CREATION AND DISBURSEMENT OF A PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS' RETIREMENT FUND IN THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows :

School committee of Providence authorized to establish a Public School Teachers' Retirement Fund.

SECTION 1. The school committee of the city of Providence shall have power to establish what shall be known as the Public School Teachers' Retirement Fund, which fund shall be administered by the board of trustees hereinafter provided for. Said fund shall consist of : -

First. All moneys received from donations, legacies, gifts, bequests, or otherwise, for or on account of said fund.

Second. On and after October first eighteen hundred ninety-seven, the school committee shall reserve and turn over to said fund one per cent. of the salaries paid to teachers who shall prior to that date elect to come under the provisions of this act ; and one per cent. of the salaries paid to all teachers appointed after said date : Provided, that no teacher shall be assessed for more than one per cent. of twelve hundred dollars per annum.

Third. All interest or income derived from the above moneys.

Fund to be administered by whom.

SEC. 2. The president or chairman of the school committee together with three members chosen by said committee, the superintendent of schools, the city treasurer of the city of Providence who shall be ex-officio the treasurer of said fund, and three representatives to be elected annually by those teachers of the public schools who contribute to the support of this fund in accordance with section 1 of this act, shall form a board of trustees who shall have charge of and administer said fund, and said board of trustees shall have power to invest and re-invest the same as shall be deemed by them most beneficial to said fund, and shall make payment from said fund of annuities granted in pursuance of this act; and shall from time to time make and establish such rules and regulations for the administration of said fund as they shall deem best.

SEC. 3. Whenever a teachers' pay roll shall be certified to the city auditor for payment, it shall contain a statement of the amount to be deducted from the salary of each teacher who contributes to the support of said fund in accordance with the provisions of this act, which amounts shall be added by said city treasurer to said retirement fund; and all amounts received by said treasurer for said fund, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be subject to the order of said board of trustees signed by the president and secretary of said board.

Certain deductions to be made from teachers' pay-roll for said fund.

SEC. 4. Every teacher who has annually contributed to said fund in accordance with the provisions of this act for at least five years, and shall have taught in public schools, if a man, not less than thirty-five years, or if a woman, not less than thirty years, twenty years of which service in both cases shall have been in the public schools of said city next preceding the time of retirement, may be retired and shall have the right voluntarily to retire from such service and become a beneficiary under this act; and every such teacher so retired or retiring shall be entitled to an annuity for the remainder of his or her life, to be paid by said board of trustees out of said fund, equal to one half of the salary of such teacher at the time of such retirement, at the same times and in the same proportions as the salaries of teachers are paid: Provided, that the annuity so paid shall in no case exceed six hundred dollars in any one year.

Who may become a beneficiary of said fund.

SEC. 5. Every teacher in the public schools of said city, who shall have taught continuously therein not less than ten years and for not less than five years annually contributed to said fund in the manner provided in this act and has become, without the fault of such teacher, mentally or physically incapacitated for such service, may retire or be retired therefrom and become a beneficiary of said fund in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in section 4 of this act: Provided, that such annuity shall cease when such incapacity ceases.

SEC. 6. In case the fund should be insufficient to pay the annuities provided for in section 4 of this act, the board of trustees shall make a ratable distribution among the teachers who may be entitled to annuities under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 540.

Passed April
20, 1898.

AN ACT IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER 53 OF THE GENERAL LAWS, "OF THE APPROPRIATION FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS."

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7 of chapter 53 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Appropriation
for reference books and illustrative apparatus.

"SEC. 7. The sum of four thousand dollars shall be annually appropriated for the purchase of dictionaries, encyclopedias and other works of reference, maps, globes, and other apparatus, for the use of the public schools of the state."

SEC. 2. Section 8 of chapter 53 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Apportionment of said
appropriation.

"SEC. 8. Said sum of four thousand dollars shall be apportioned among the several towns and districts as follows:

Every town or district desiring to avail itself of this appropriation shall make application therefor to the commissioner of public schools, with vouchers for the amount actually expended. Upon receipt of said application and vouchers the commissioner of public schools may draw his order on the general treasurer in behalf of said applicant, for half the amount of said vouchers, to an amount not exceeding twenty dollars in any one year in favor of any one district, or at the rate of ten dollars for each school, to an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars in any one year for any town: Provided, that the gross amount in any one year shall not exceed four thousand dollars."

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect on and after its passage, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 544.

AN ACT TO SECURE A MORE UNIFORM HIGH STANDARD IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THIS STATE.

Passed May 4,
1898.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. In case any town shall consolidate three or more ungraded schools, and instead thereof shall establish and maintain a graded school of two or more departments with an "average number belonging" of not less than twenty pupils for each department, the state shall pay to such town one hundred dollars annually for each department of said schools towards the support thereof. Two or more towns may unite in the establishment and maintenance of such graded school, and in such cases the money paid by the state towards the support thereof shall be divided between the towns thus maintaining said school according to the number of pupils contributed by each town to the whole "average number belonging."

Any town may consolidate three or more ungraded schools.

Any district with ungraded school may consolidate with district having graded school.

SEC. 2. In case of the consolidation of any district maintaining an ungraded school with another district maintaining a graded school there shall be paid by the state to the town in which the districts are situated, on account of the latter district, the sum of one hundred dollars annually for each district so consolidated, the same to be used for the support of the aforesaid graded school, or for the transportation of pupils as provided for by section 8 of this chapter.

State aid provided for high school education.

SEC. 3. Any town maintaining a high school having a course of study approved by the state board of education, and in the town of New Shoreham any consolidated district provided for in section 1 of Chapter 57 of the General Laws, shall be entitled to receive annually from the state twenty dollars for each pupil in average attendance for the first twenty-five pupils, and ten dollars for each pupil in average attendance for the second twenty-five pupils. Any town not maintaining a high school, which shall make provision for the free attendance of its children at some high school or academy approved by the state board of education, shall be entitled to receive aid from the state for each pupil in such attendance upon the same basis and to the same extent as if it maintained a high school by itself.

Applications to whom made.

SEC. 4. All applications for aid under this act shall be made to the commissioner of public schools by the school committee of the town; and said application must be accompanied by the certificate of the principal teacher of the school on account of which the application is made, setting forth the facts relating to the attendance which is made the basis of the application.

Provisions against forfeiture.

SEC. 5. After any school, such as is provided for in section 1 of this chapter, has been established it shall not forfeit its claim to its share of the state aid for a failure to maintain the required "average number belonging" unless said "av-average number belonging " falls below fifteen for the several departments.

SEC. 6. The sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be needed, shall be annually appropriated for the payment of the several sums which may become due and payable under the provisions of this chapter ; and the state auditor is hereby authorized and directed to draw his orders on the general treasurer in favor of such towns for such sums as shall be certified to him by the commissioner of public schools as due to said towns under the provisions of this chapter. Appropriation.

SEC. 7. In the apportionment of the annual appropriation of the one hundred and twenty thousand dollars provided by law for the support of public schools, no town shall forfeit any portion thereof hereafter on account of any reduction in the number of its schools, by reason of the consolidation thereof in accordance with the provisions of this act, but each town shall continue to be entitled to the same amount from said annual appropriation upon the basis of the number of schools prior to such consolidation. (See Sec. 2, Chap. 53.) Consolidation shall not work forfeiture of any part of public money.

SEC. 8. The school committee of any town may consolidate any schools the average number belonging of each of which is less than twelve, for the purpose of establishing a graded school ; and said school committee shall have authority to provide, in their discretion, transportation for pupils to and from school. School committee may consolidate schools, when.

SEC. 9. No person shall be employed to teach, as principal or assistant, in any school supported wholly or in part by public money unless such person shall have a certificate of qualification issued by, or under the authority of, the state board of education. (See Sec. 8, Chap. 60, and Sec. 1, Chap. 61.) Every teacher must have State certificate.

Examinations,
when and by whom held.

SEC. 10. The state board of education shall hold, or cause to be held, in such places in different parts of the state, and at such times as they may determine, examinations for the position of teacher in the public schools of this state; and said board of education is hereby authorized to issue certificates of qualification which shall be valid throughout the state for the grade and time specified therein.

Annulment of certificate.

SEC. 11. Said board of education may at any time annul for cause any certificate issued by them, after due notice to the holder thereof, and an opportunity for a hearing if desired.

Certificates issued without examination, when.

SEC. 12. Said state board of education may, in their discretion, issue certificates of qualification without examination to persons who have taught in the public schools in this state for three or more years, upon their filing with said board a written application approved by the school committee of the town where the applicant shall have taught the greater part of the three years next preceding the date of the application.

SEC. 13. This act shall take effect on July first A. D. 1898, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 545.

Passed May 4,
1898.

AN ACT IN AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER 85 OF THE GENERAL LAWS, "OF PROVISION FOR THE EDUCATION OF DEAF, BLIND, AND IMBECILE CHILDREN."

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4 of Chapter 85 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 4. All bills arising under this chapter shall be examined and approved by the board of education, and the state auditor is hereby authorized to draw his orders on the general treasurer for the payment thereof when properly certified by the secretary of the board and approved by the governor; and a sum not to exceed fourteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be needed, is hereby annually appropriated therefor out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated."

Appropriation for education of deaf, blind, and imbecile children.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect on and after its passage, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CREATION AND DISBURSEMENT OF A PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS' RETIREMENT FUND IN THE CITY OF NEWPORT.

Passed May 6, 1898.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows :

SECTION 1. The school committee of the city of Newport shall have power to establish what shall be known as the public school teachers' retirement fund, which fund shall be administered by the board of trustees hereinafter provided for. Said fund shall consist of School committee of Newport authorized to establish a public school teachers' retirement fund.

First, All moneys received from donations, legacies, gifts, bequests, or otherwise, for or on account of said fund, and also any appropriation which the city council of said city may see fit to make from time to time for the benefit of said fund, which appropriations are hereby authorized to be made by said city council.

Second, On and after September 1, 1898, the school committee of said city shall reserve and turn over to said fund one per cent. of the salaries paid to teachers who shall, prior to that date, elect to come under the provisions of this act; and one per cent. of the salaries paid to all teachers appointed after said date: Provided, that not more than one per cent. of twelve hundred dollars per annum shall be deducted from the salary of any one teacher.

Third, All income or interest derived from the above moneys.

Fund to be administered by or how.

SEC. 2. Three members of the said school committee, chosen annually by said committee, the superintendent of schools, and three representatives to be elected by those teachers of the public schools who contribute to the support of this fund in accordance with section 1 of this act, shall form a board of trustees who shall have charge of and administer said fund, and said board of trustees shall have power to invest and re-invest the same as shall be deemed by them most beneficial to said fund, and shall make payment from said fund of annuities granted in pursuance of this act, and shall from time to time make and establish such rules and regulations for the administration of such fund as they shall deem best. The city treasurer of said city shall be ex-officio the treasurer of said fund. Of the three representatives to be elected by the said teachers at the time of their first election, one shall be chosen for a term of one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and thereafter one such representative shall be chosen each year to serve for the term of three years.

Certain deductions to be made from teachers' pay-roll for said fund.

SEC. 3. Whenever a teachers' pay-roll shall be certified to the city auditor of said city for payment, it shall contain a statement of the amount to be deducted from the salary of each teacher who contributes to the support of said fund in accordance with the provisions of this act, which amounts shall be added by said city treasurer to said retirement fund ; and all amounts received by said treasurer for said fund, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be subject to the order of said board of trustees, signed by the president and secretary of said board.

SEC. 4. Every teacher who has annually contributed to said fund in accordance with the provisions of this act for at least five years, and shall have taught in public schools for not less than thirty years, fifteen years of which service shall have been in the public schools of said city, may be retired, and shall have the right voluntarily to retire from such service and become a beneficiary under this act ; and every such teacher so retired or retiring shall be entitled to an annuity equal to one half the amount of salary received at the time of retirement, for the remainder of his or her life, to be paid by said board of trustees at the same time and in the same proportion as the salaries of public school teachers in said city are paid : Provided, that no annuity shall be paid till such retiring member shall have contributed to the fund a sum equal to all the assessments for thirty years had he been assessed hereunder upon his salary during said term, except under the conditions prescribed in section 5, and provided also, that the annuity so paid shall in no case exceed six hundred dollars in any one year.

Who may become a beneficiary of said fund.

SEC. 5. Every teacher in the public schools of said city, who shall have taught continuously therein not less than ten years, and for not less than five years annually contributed to said fund in the manner provided in this act, and has become, without the fault of such teacher, mentally or physically incapacitated for such service, may retire or be retired therefrom, and become a beneficiary of said fund in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in section 4 of this act ; except that the teacher so retired may at the discretion of the board be exempted from the obligation to make good thirty full assessments as above, and such in-
